the BAY VIEW HIGH SCHOOL 50th ANNIVERSARY ORACLE • 1964

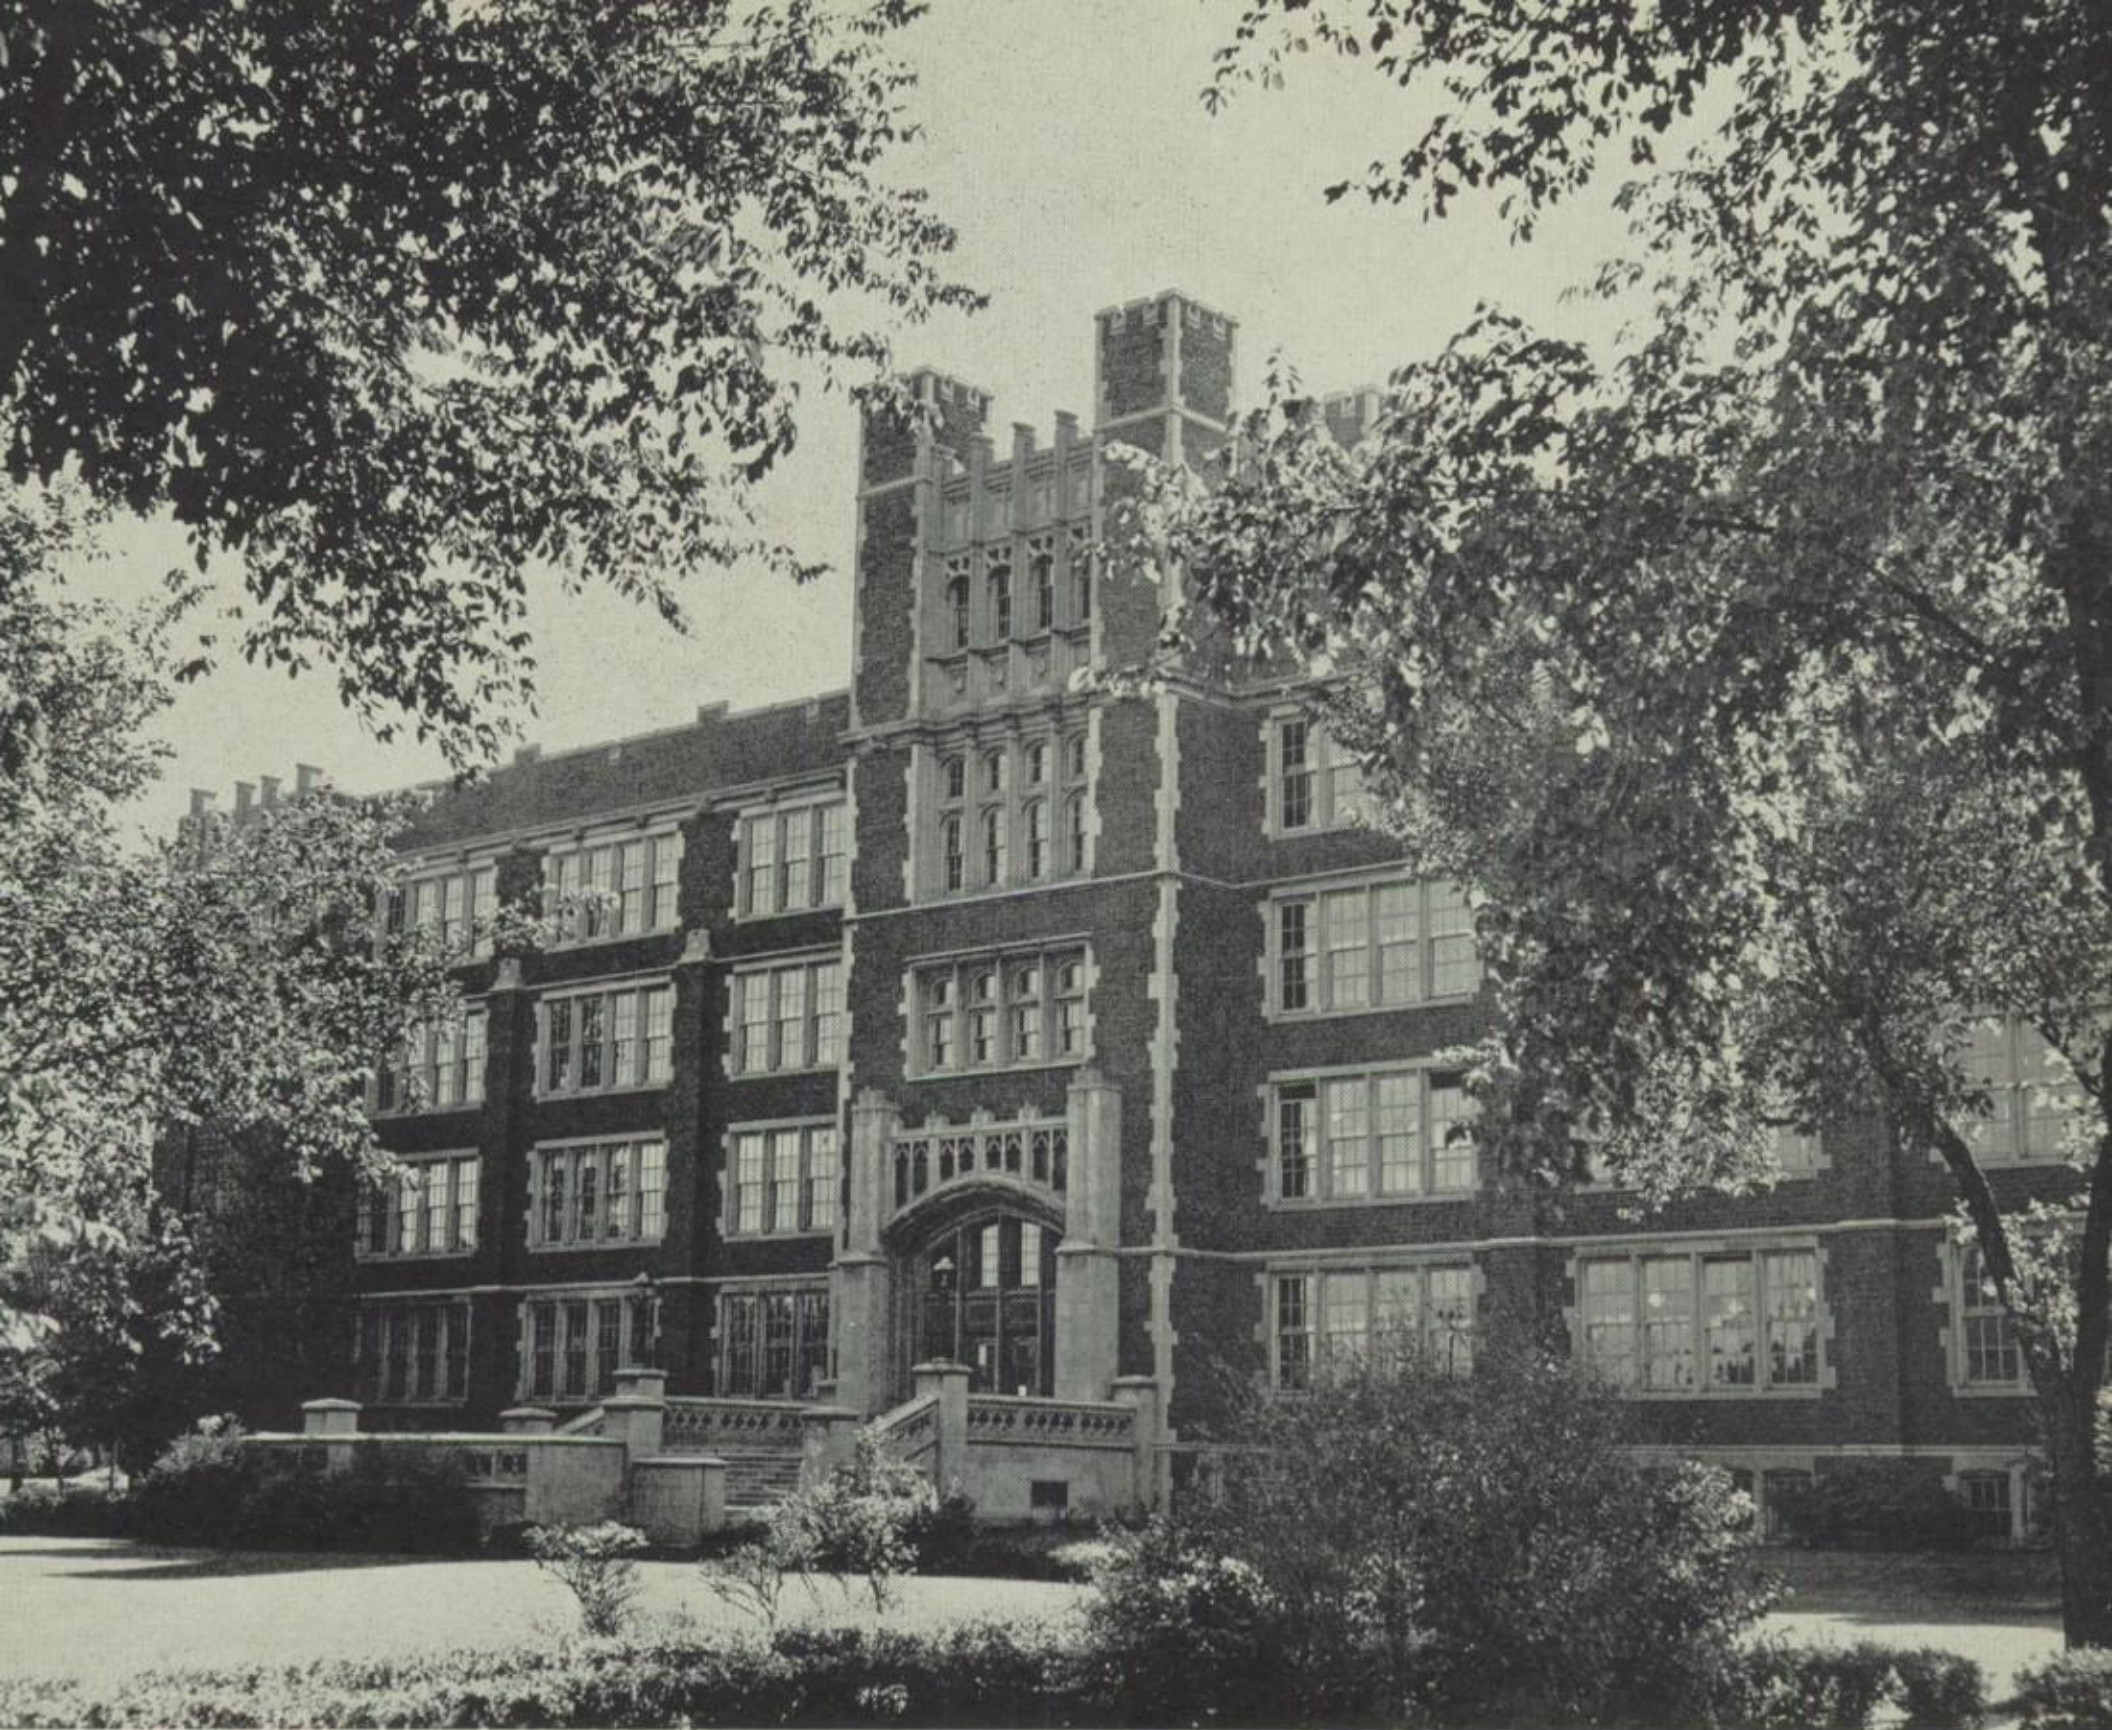

DEDICATION

In fifty years many golden memories can be recorded. There are people, classes, and events that will always be remembered. Almost anything can revive these memories — a person, a phrase, or a picture. The photographs on the next few pages are meant to recall the golden memories, on this our Golden Anniversary.

To the able administrators, to the many devoted faculty members, and to the thousands of loyal graduates of Bay View High School, we dedicate this Golden Anniversary Yearbook of 1964.

This is your anniversary — yours because they are your memories that will inspire Bay View to continue living proudly by its motto:

"Palmarum Qui Meruit Ferat."

back in the old days

Fifty years of school history may be infinitesimal when measured against the span of man's existence on earth, but to those who have been associated with it, have lived through it, it is almost a life span. From barracks to present structure, Bay View High School has served as an academic home to some 15,000 graduates. Beginning in September, 1914, with an enrollment of one hundred fifty-seven pupils and seven faculty, it has grown to its present size of 2,168 pupils and ninety-four faculty.

Of course, the old barracks with its limited facilities, antiquated heating and water systems, poor lighting, and splintery softwood floors and walls so thin that one could be educated in two subjects during one class period is a far cry from the modern school of today with its language and science laboratories, office machines, television classes, loud-speaker system, swimming pool, guidance offices, and I.B.M. tabulators. But one does not measure a school by its material equipment only. It has been said that a great teacher on one end of a log and a pupil on the other can constitute a great school. Surely this was true of the barracks, for here were students who learned to face hardships, share problems, and avoid self-pity.

They did not complain that the rooms were drafty or the roof leaky, or that the lighting was dim — no fluorescent lighting then. Suntime controlled the periods for study, for lamps were few and gas jets fewer. And it must be remembered that these early pioneer students came to the barracks from bright, warm, modern grade schools, modern for 1914. But complaints were not a part of their picture, for they possessed something greater than material things, namely the warm companionship and happy spirit that came with hardships shared while learning all that the barracks curriculum had to offer to each one of them.

By 1917 the school was full. The construction of a larger building was suggested by prominent residents of Bay View. Their case was presented to the school board, and after some debating, the board finally approved the building of the "million dollar" school.

Van Ryn and DeGelleke, architects, drew up the plans for the new school. Mr. Gustav A. Fritsche, who was to become the first principal of Bay View High, broke the ground, starting construction on September 18, 1917.

During the first World War construction slowed down and finally ceased. However, construction began once more shortly after peace was made in 1918, this time benefiting by the latest building techniques developed during the war years. At last, in 1922, the students moved from the overcrowded barracks into the "Castle on the Hill."

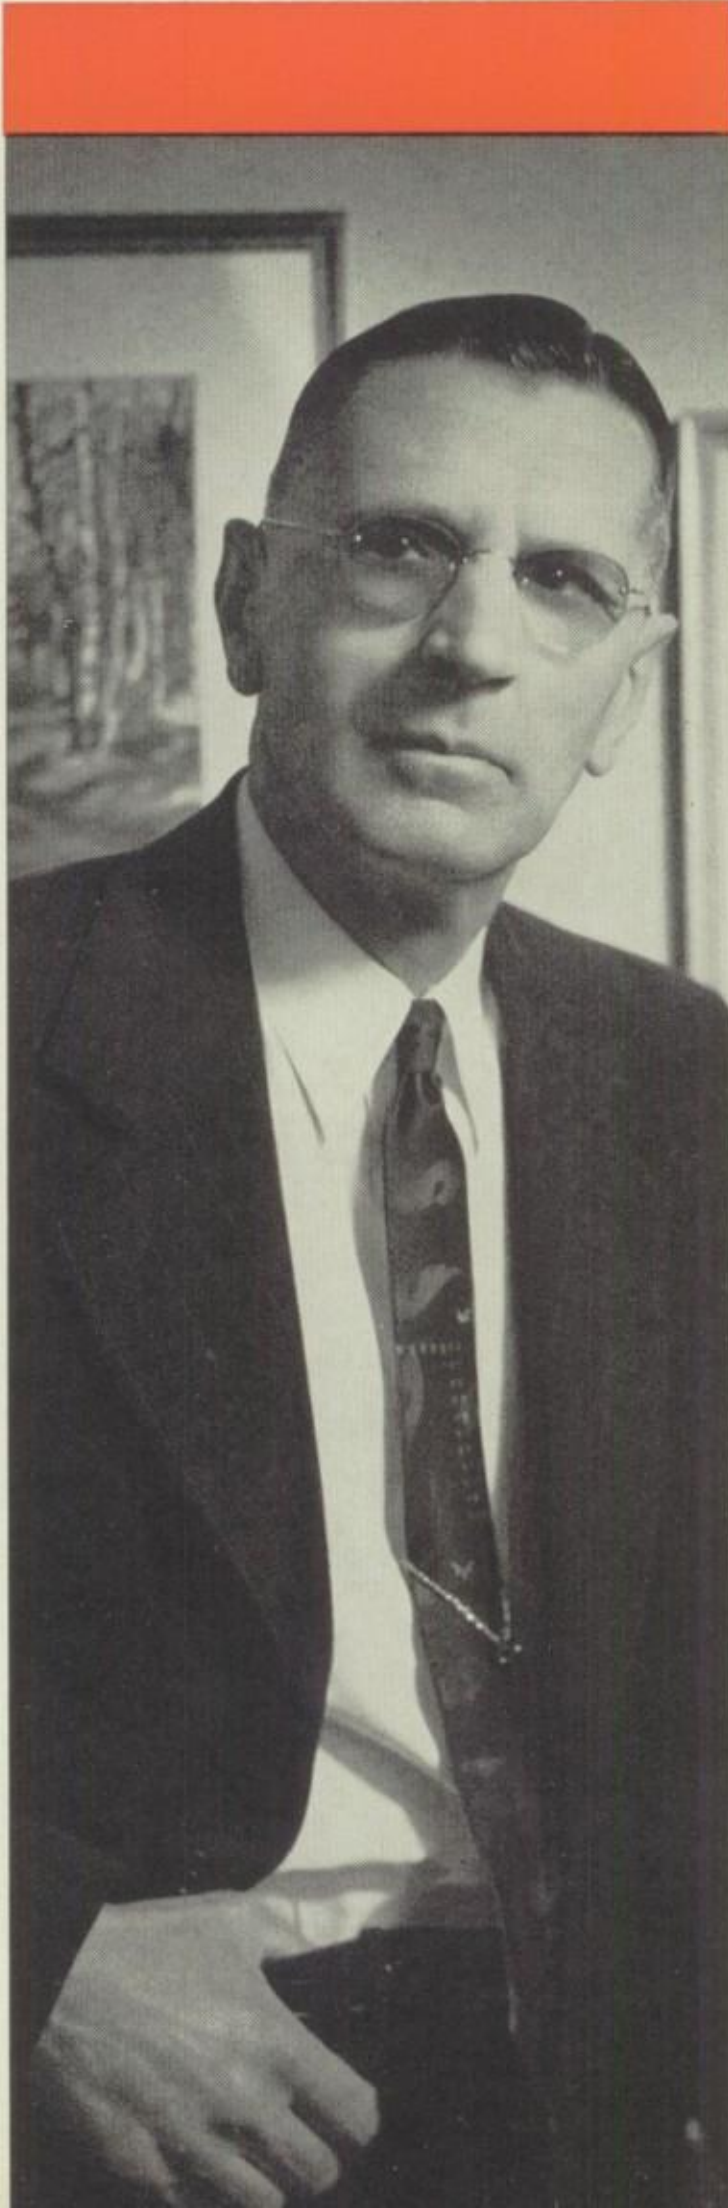

This "million dollar edifice" has served the community well over the past forty-two years. Of course, many renovations have been made in recent years with the modernization of classrooms and installation of new equipment and facilities; but the same structure prevails, providing the same atmosphere of learning today that it did nearly a half century ago.

Bay View High School has produced great leaders in its history. Mr. Gustav A. Fritsche, Bay View's first principal, came to the barracks from South Division in the fall of 1914, a scholarly man of classical training and keen perception into human value. He was tireless in his service to his school. It is said that when the new school was under construction from 1917-1922, he studied the blueprints thoroughly and knew exactly where every nut and bolt was placed. He had little patience with laziness or lack of integrity. No shifty-eyed maker of excuses endured long in his presence. This is not to say that he lacked compassion. Quite the contrary. In many instances he assisted students personally to obtain clothes, books, and opportunities to continue in school. Mr. Fritsche, in 1935, made the statement, "We must strive to insure equal educational opportunities for all the children of all the people." All who knew him realized his desire to reach this objective.

Dr. Bernhard Korn, who succeeded Mr. Fritsche in 1939, continued the fine leadership of his predecessor. He had been Mr. Fritsche's student at South Division and became his vice-principal and head of the history department at Bay View in barracks days. His devotion to Mr. Fritsche and his appreciation of his sterling qualities were beautiful to see. Perhaps Dr. Korn's outstanding characteristic was his continuing faith in growth. While principal of Bay View, he encouraged the development of an outstanding student government organization, not only for his own school but for the schools of the entire city. For a long time he acted as sponsor of the Milwaukee Inter-High Council and was always willing to experiment, as witness his interest in giving support to the development of the seminar approach in teaching English and Contemporary History for the gifted — the first such courses offered in this part of the country.

Bay View's 50th year

In the barracks days Bay Viewites participated in only two organized sports: football and track. After a hard football or track session the athletes would dash into the "shower" room and cool off under a sprinkling can or an inverted can of cold water. How unlike the hot and cold showers our school provides today. Now all we can complain of is the slippery, wet floor!

Cross country and track were begun in 1929, and since that time they have had an enviable record, cross country winning all dual meets and three championships as early as 1935 and placing consistently at the top every year of competition since.

In 1933 Bay View won its fifth swimming title and in 1937 its first football championship. Innovations in sports at Bay View were fencing in the 30's and commando training in 1943, which provided boys with some conditioning for military life which many of them were soon to enter.

There have been many changes in organized sports at Bay View: the name has changed from "Silverites" to "Redcats"; the uniforms have changed from makeshift, drab, uncomfortable garments to the brightly-colored, form-fitting attire of today; and the sports themselves have changed with revisions in rules and regulations. Yet the spirit of Bay View has remained the same through the decades. We have heard the same enthusiastic cries for victory in 1963-64 as were heard when the first Viewites rooted for the very first football team.

BAY VIEW'S GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY YEAR

Perhaps the activities that appeal most are those that give students stage experience — audience experience. Band, Orchestra, Glee Club, and A Cappella always contribute to every auditorium program, and Bay View's stage productions are second to none. As Dr. Korn has so often said, and as Principal Showers confirms — "If a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing well and paying for." Royalties are gladly paid for good productions, and that is perhaps why Broadway hits are frequently produced on the Bay View stage even before the legitimate stage bills them. Examples of this are "The King and I," "South Pacific," "The Music Man," and this past year's "My Fair Lady."

In the half century of Bay View's history, hundreds of students have been intricately involved in stage or music productions. Our own Mr. Dietrich and Mr. Hepner played leading roles in past operettas. Several people are now famous because of the start they received on the Bay View High stage.

It is the lessons taught by fifty years of stage experience that make the performances of today better than the performances of yesterday and the shows of tomorrow better than those of today.

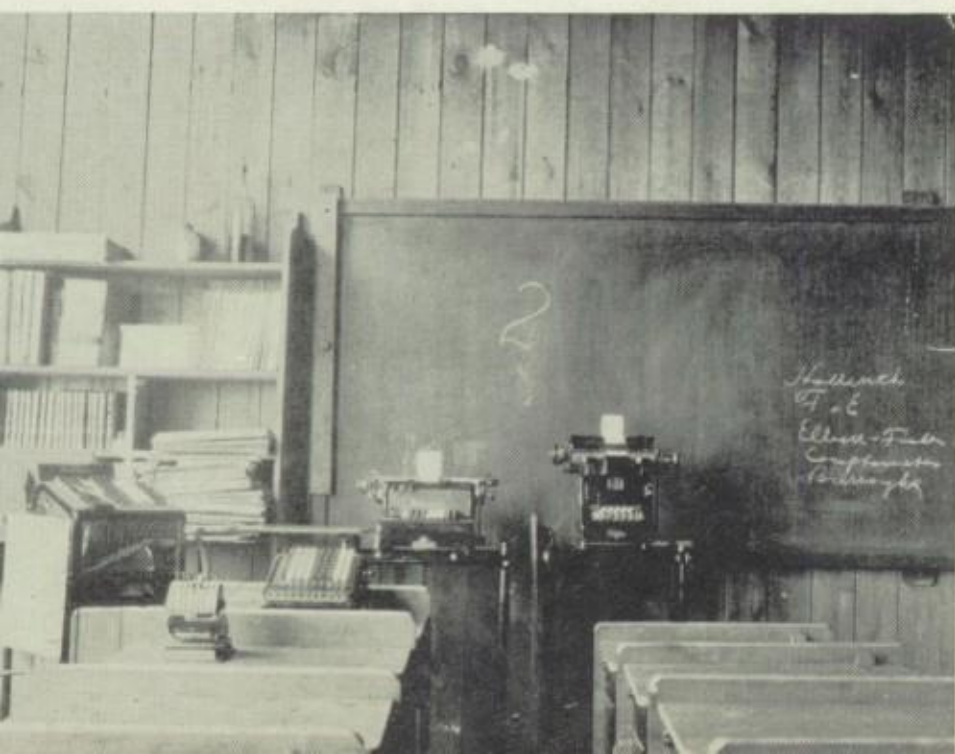

BAY VIEW'S GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY YEAR

Expansion of activities was natural, and by 1918, the year of graduation of the first Bay View High School class, several extra-curricular activities such as Round Table, the Oracle, Home Economics Club, Athletic Associations, Art Club, Boys' Club, Girls' Club, and dramatic programs had been born.

Today Bay View has some thirty-six activity groups other than sports presenting experience opportunities for students, as witness this imposing list of clubs and crews: Amateur Radio Operators, Art, Aviation, Camera, Chess, Construction, Costume, Debate, Dramatics, Emblem, Flag, Foreign Correspondence, Foreign Language, Future Nurses, Future Secretaries, Future Teachers, Girls', History, Home Economics, Library, Lighting, Math, Pep, Projection, Publications, Radio, Red Cross, Scenery, Science, Senior Girls' Honor Society, Spot, Stage, Student Government, Usher, and X.

And what of the next twenty-five years? Who can say what the activity list will include then — ventures into space, weekend trips to the moon? All possible, but none will be more happily engaged in, perhaps, than those bits of life experiences which students will use in the greatest activity of all — the development of the truly worthwhile American home.

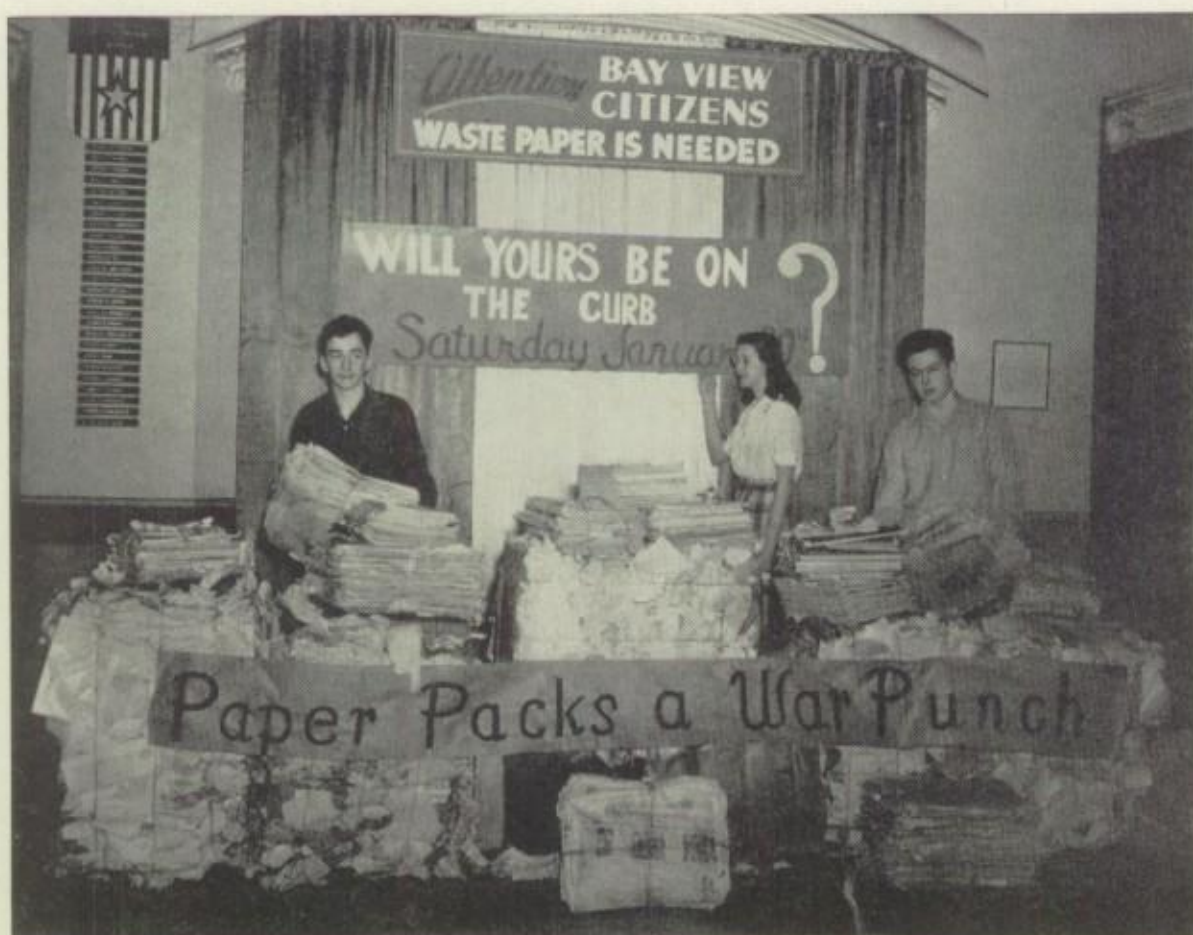

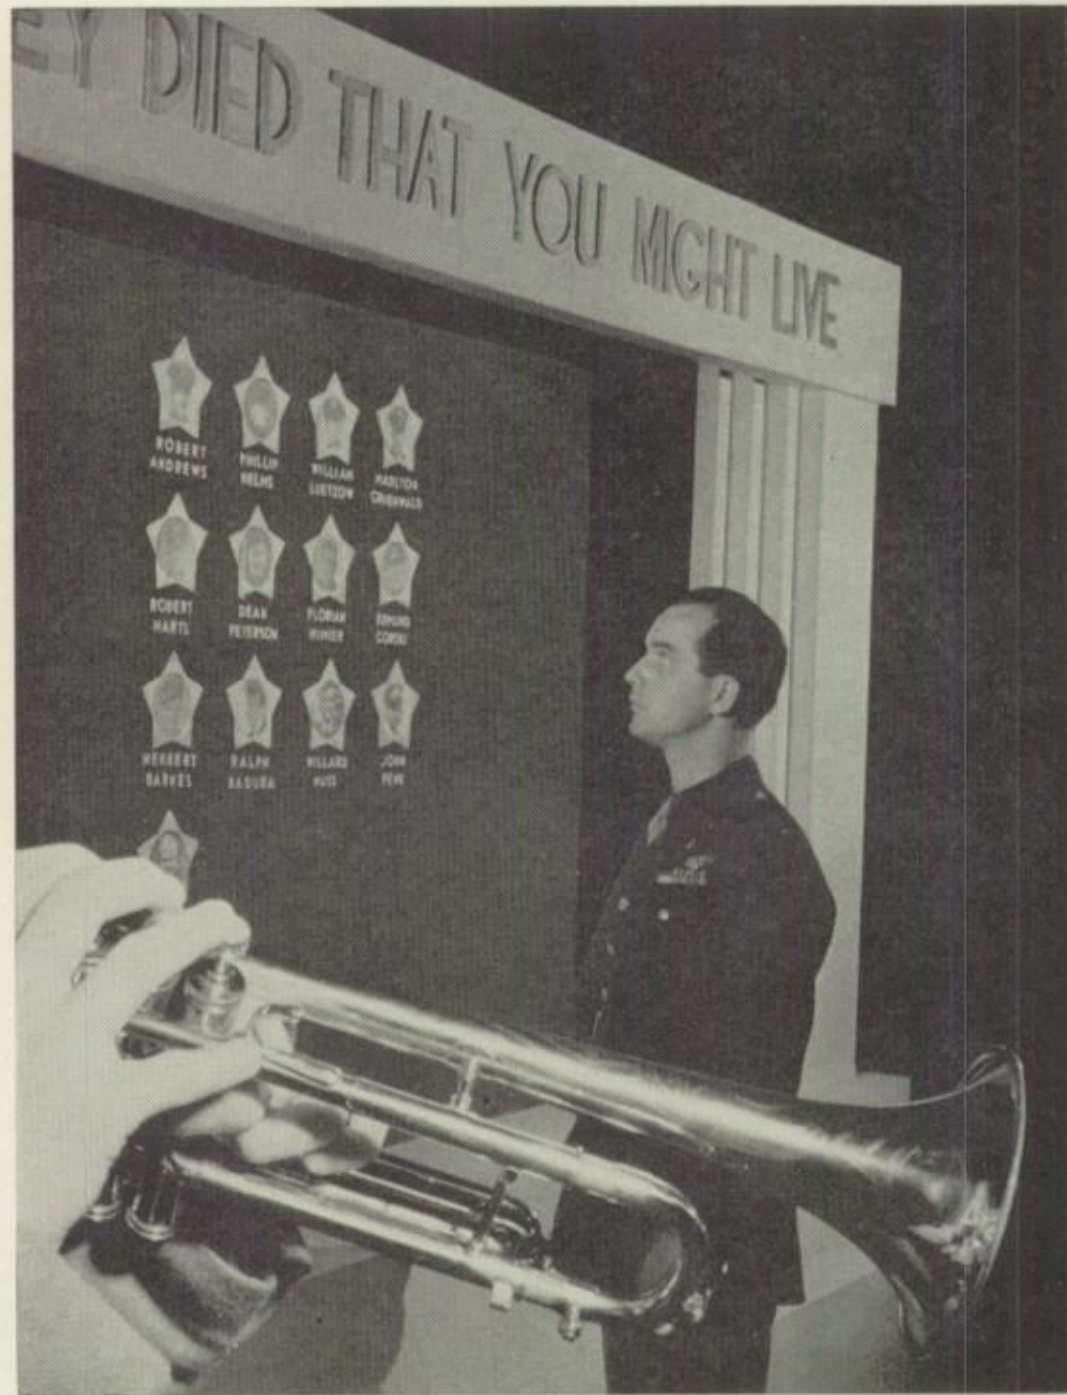

And let it never be forgotten that between the American home and the threats of the enemy, the defenders have always stood — American youth who responded to their country's call for protection. It was true in the barracks years of 1914-1918, in the war years of 1941-1945, during the Korean conflict — and it is true in the far-flung outposts of military service where our graduates are stationed today.

Our present Student Government Association is an outgrowth of World War II and its Victory Corps. During the war Bay View concluded some one hundred Gold Star services for her war dead, led the nation's schools in the sale of over one million dollars' worth of war bonds, and collected some 93,000 tons of salvage paper on one Saturday afternoon.

Because of Bay View's tireless support during the war years, Dr. Korn was made state representative for the War Production Board and was sent to Washington, D. C., as a consultant on salvage drives and war-bond campaigns.

The oil painting of an attacking infantryman, hanging in Bay View's halls, is a treasured award presented to our school for leading the nation's schools in the sale of bonds during World War II. May it always represent our school's integrity and continual support of America's way of life.

Certainly, our school has progressed through the bright and the dark moments of twentieth century history. In the course of its half century of existence, it has experienced the throes of World War I, the gaiety of the Roaring 20's, the despondency of the depression, the embroilment of global conflict in World War II, the cold war tension following the Korean conflict, and the prosperity of recent years.

Time changes the face of many things — styles and fads are only flickers of light in History's day; trend overlaps trend, and cycles come and go. Yet, one thing remains timeless in the face of change — the spirit of endeavor that transcends age itself. We here at Bay View believe such a spirit is ours.

How convincingly Bay View has faced the problems of her times — from 1914 to 1964. May the next twenty-five or fifty years bring her the blessings of peace and an ever clearer concept of the duties and the privileges of a citizen in a democracy.

MR. ARTHUR L. SHOWERS
Principal

The responsibility of providing an atmosphere at Bay View High whereby character and scholarship may be nurtured rests with Arthur L. Showers, Principal. Mr. Showers, cognizant of the vital role of education in our complex society, is dedicated to the task of preparing today's youth for the great adventure of life. Heading a capable and conscientious faculty, he performs a myriad of administrative duties associated with the efficient operation of a large high school. Like his predecessors, he has carried on the tradition of deep understanding and concern for the youth of this community.

Co-ordination and Control

In the past few years Bay View has achieved and maintained the highest attendance record of any senior high school in Milwaukee. This accomplishment is due to the efforts of our Vice-Principal, Mr. Williams, who is in charge of school attendance and all rules and regulations pertaining to proper conduct.

Control of problem behavior, with its accompanying disciplinary action, falls under the watchful eye of Mr. Williams. In carrying out the duties of his position, he gives all students the opportunity to develop in the best learning environment. The students consider him "our lawman with a square deal," for he is known to be unquestionably fair, though firm in his judgments.

In addition to the above responsibilities, Mr. Williams also organizes and supervises the extra-curricular program of the school and assists in the orientation of new teachers.

Vice-Principal
MR. WILLIAMS

Assistant to the Principal
MR. KACZMAREK

Administrative duties in conducting a secondary school are numerous and varied, and often pose many problems. Preparation for the opening and closing of each semester, construction of a school program of studies, and assignment of teachers to available rooms must be performed each year. These are some of the responsibilities which fall under the jurisdiction of Mr. Kaczmarek, Assistant to the Principal. In addition, while performing other administrative matters delegated to his office, Mr. Kaczmarek gathers and distributes information about scholarships to qualified and interested students.

The scope of Mr. Kaczmarek's activities is wide, as both teachers and students are affected in varying degrees by the performance of his duties.

Counselor Chairman
MISS STATZ

The counseling staff at Bay View seeks to help each student to understand his environment, the opportunities the school offers, and the people with whom he works and lives. Each counselor, in consultation with class and homeroom teachers, attempts to guide the student to develop good study habits, to adjust socially, to participate in extra-curricular activities, and to understand which goals he should strive to attain. From his very first day at Bay View to that "last walk" at graduation, a student realizes the importance of his guidance counselor in helping him reach the right decisions. The myriad of freshman-sophomore tests, the selection of the right courses, the pre-college lectures, tests, and applications, the arrangement of vocational speakers and interviews, and many other activities comprise the total effort of our guidance department to the school.

CATS Claw Back After Opening Setbacks

After 15 days of grueling practice, our Redcats grappled with the always tough Tech Trojans. Although we came out on the short end of a 6-0 score, Boys' Tech limped out on the sore end with only 14 yards gained in the second half. The next two ventures against the Lincoln Comets and Rufus King Generals ended in dismay, giving us our second and third consecutive losses of the year. A determined offensive squad, a hard-nosed platoon of defensive men starving for victory, a terrific punt return, and stands full of raving Viewites and alumni provided the ideal ingredients for a homecoming victory over the Pioneers of Juneau. Bay View's encounter with North, the next target, developed into a third and fourth quarter rushing attack which downed the Blue Devils, 19-13. The following contest on the schedule matched us with our arch-rival, South. Knowing the satisfying taste of victory from the two previous games, the Cats' offense took the limelight by conducting a 34-0 runaway romp over the Cardinals. For the first time in the history of the school, a non-conference game was added to the season schedule. In an unfamiliar setting at Delafield, our boys bowed to St. John's Military Academy in a close game. The seventh conference game of the season also ended in defeat as the city champs, the Pulaski Rams, slipped by our fighting gridmen. In the final game of the year, the Mierzwa-men, with fiery determination in their hearts, toppled Marshall, edging them out of a tie for second place and giving Bay View a 4-4 record for the season.

HARRIERS ON A WARMUP JOG

To Successful Season

The 1963 cross country season proved a successful one for the Redcat runners and Coach Matthei. The varsity finished its dual meets with three victories against two losses, running its record to 169 wins and 20 losses. The first meet against Boys' Tech put Bay View off to a fast start as the Redcats ran to a 24-31 victory. John Schroeder set a course record with a time of 10:31. Meeting Juneau, the Red and Black trampled the Pioneers, 15-55. Losses were suffered to Lincoln's state champs, 24-34, and Racine Horlick, 24-31. Next, Pulaski was defeated 24-31. The city meet saw the Redcats lose the conference crown by a hair with Washington and Lincoln as the only teams to place ahead of our runners. The state sectional, held on the Humboldt Park course, provided the Redcats with a second place finish immediately behind Horlick. The Redcats finished the season by placing fourth in the state class A finals.

The B team, completing the season undefeated, placed third in both the city and Midwest meets.

GYMNASTICS ... Strength

The beginning of gymnastics is somewhat obscure, but it possibly began about 2600 B.C. when the Chinese developed a few activities which resembled gymnastics. However, real development of this sport began in the Grecian and Roman periods. With the fall of these civilizations, gymnastics declined. During the Renaissance a renewed surge of interest in physical activities swept the European continent. In America, the development of gymnastics began with physical education programs patterned after the European programs. Today, a great deal is being done in gymnastics. It is being discovered that, with proper supervision and instruction, this sport can be one of the most popular in the high school athletic program.

Gymnastics at Bay View began with five pieces of apparatus: long horse, parallel bars, high bar, still rings, and tumbling mats. Mr. Matthei started coaching these events in 1927. Since then one exercise has been added — the free exercise, in which the participant uses strength and balance to do a variety of exercises without apparatus. Mr. Hesiak assumed the coaching duties for the squad in 1961.

The gymnastic squad experienced a successful season this year. They defeated Granville in their first dual meet of the season by a score of 59.5-52.5. They went on to topple West Division twice in a row, 69.5-42.5 and 64.5-47.5. After downing King, 59.5-52.5, the Redcats dropped their second meet with Granville but came on strong to whip Custer and Marshall. After bowing to Custer in their second meet, they were victorious against Marshall, 58.5-53.5, in their second meet with the Eagles. Bay View took five firsts and two seconds at the Preeble Open Gym Meet, placing second out of 17 schools. The squad placed fourth in the city meet before moving on to the state meet at Granville. There, George Mountcastle, giving his usual fine performance, placed first on the still rings. The Redcats gained an overall sixth place, ending the season with an enviable record.

The school cannot ask for more excitement than that which our Cagers gave us the past season in the way of fast action, exceptional skill, resourcefulness, and that "never say die" attitude. Opening the season with Pulaski, they bowed, 68-63. The following game pitted the Courtmen against North Division, the team that was to become City Conference Champs and runnerup in the State Tournament. The final score was 62-52. The Pioneers of Juneau were the next to turn back our boys by just one bucket, 52-50. South was the Redcat's first and second victim; then Marshall, East, Lincoln, and Juneau also fell before the victory-hungry bucketmen. Bay View, finishing the season with an eighth place tie, was third in defensive play.

Yet, we all are aware that this was not the end of the season, for the Redcat squad went on to capture a Regional Championship and gain a berth in the Sectional Tourney, the first time in the fifty year history of Bay View. These honors were brought about by the Bay View Five edging of Pulaski and the trouncing of Oak Creek and Greendale. The hopes of traveling to Madison, though, were crushed when Bay View lost to Waukesha.

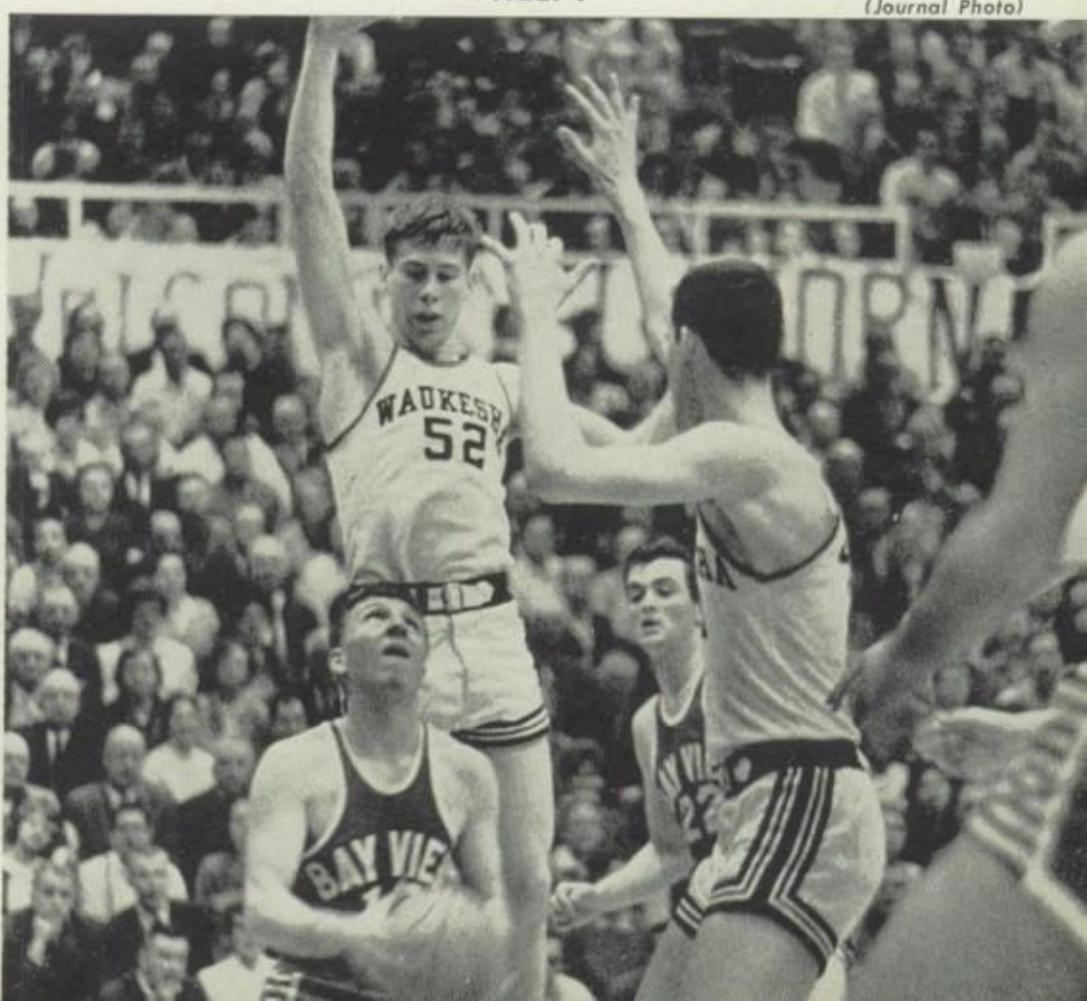

We have every reason to be proud of our basketball team this year. Though thwarted in many close conference games, the team carried Bay View's banner in a spirited and competitive fashion throughout the season and tournament.

In 1925 Mr. Kenneth Royal coached Bay View's first swim team. Since then our boys have captured many city and several state championships. During the last 15 years, however, the chances of taking a championship have been limited as more and more teams have entered the conference.

This year the Bay View swim team encountered stiffer competition than ever before. Thirteen broken records in the two city events indicate that this season produced many topnotch swimmers in the city conference. Under the coaching of Mr. Budzak, and a newcomer, Mr. Buehler, Bay View placed sixth in a field of eleven in the City Meet. This year's team proved to be one of the fastest units ever to represent Bay View.

The 160 yard relay team accomplished the greatest feat of the season. They eclipsed the old relay record, a record they were told would stand forever, with a time of 1:20:4.

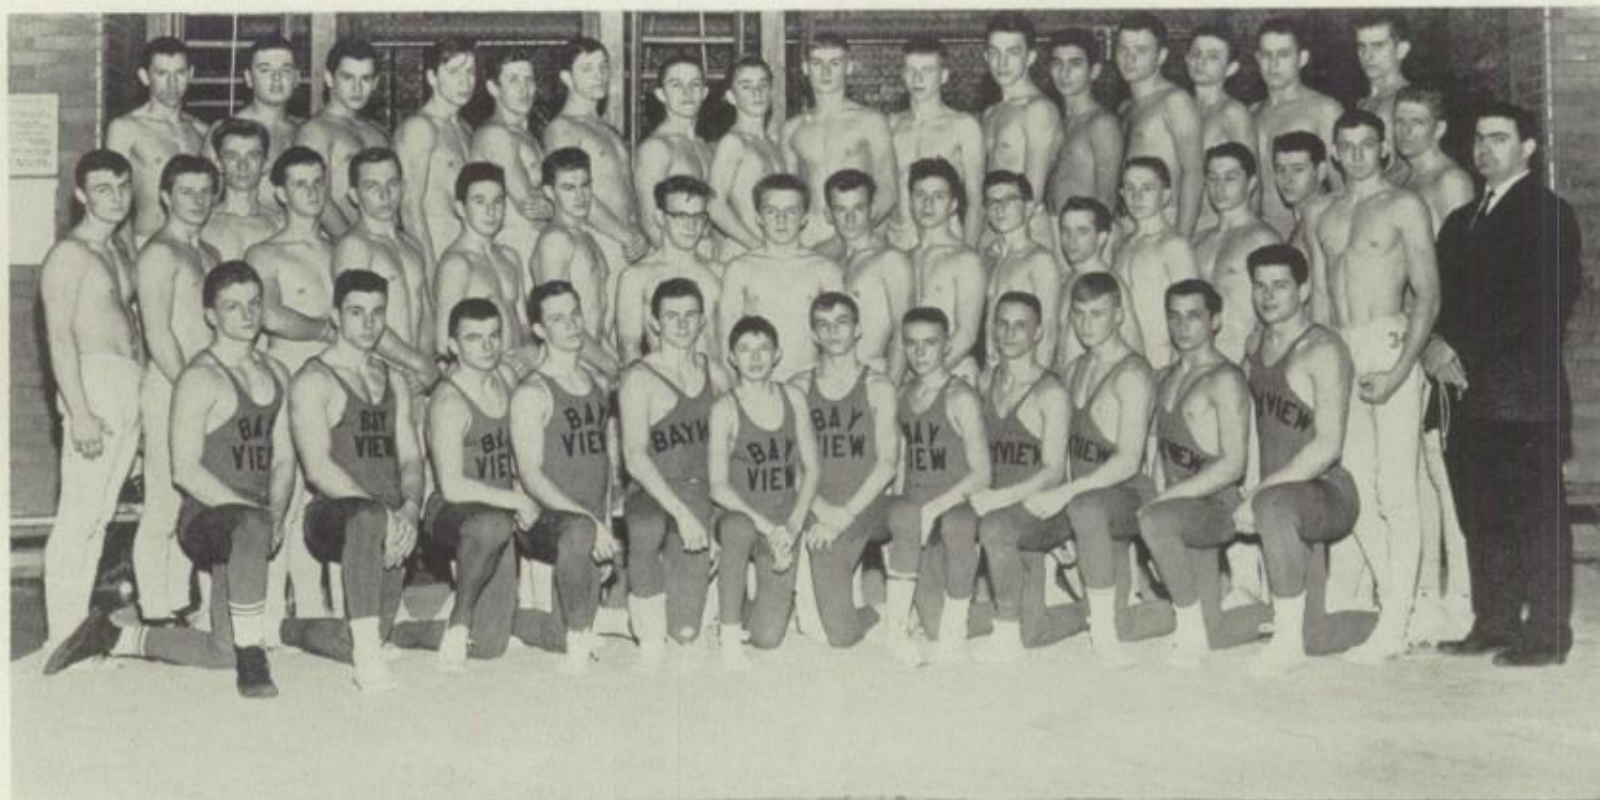

The boys on this year's team will be sorely missed, particularly Tom "Augie" Augustynowicz. During his past four years on the team, he has set 18 individual records, including a city record, and has been a member of two record-breaking relay teams.

There were many proud moments this past season. Perhaps the best of these was the upsetting of a strong King team. Cudahy fell, as did King, 44.5-41.5. Although Bay View did bow to the perennial city leaders, Custer, Pulaski, and this year's champ, Boys' Tech, they were by no means an easy opponent. Our finmen were spirited competitors, despite the strong opposition experienced during this year's season.

Playing brilliant baseball, our Redcat team emerged, in the comparatively short baseball history at Bay View, as co-champions of the 1963 city conference. The 1963 season was a succession of victories, marked by exceptional poise, speed, and initiative, qualities which have made Bay View a determined contender in all of the major sports in Milwaukee.

The first city conference crown was captured in 1950, the first year the Diamondmen, under Mr. Kaczmarek, took to the field in conference play. During the 1952 and 1953 season, the Cats were idle. Baseball was resumed in 1954 under Coach Paul Sherry, who directed the team until 1961. Mr. Hesiak, the present coach, assumed coaching duties for the team in 1962 and directed the squad to its championship season last year.

With two titles to their credit, the Redcats took to the field this season with genuine spirit and sportsmanship, marks of a championship team.

Since 1933, when the first all-male cheerleader squad was organized with its raccoon coats, straw-hats, and other trappings, cheerleading has played a very active part in molding the spirit of the school. Only since 1961 have the girls assumed complete control in promoting and channeling school spirit.

To lead the life of a cheerleader is the dream of most every high school girl, though only a select few realize this enviable position. However, being a cheerleader is more than just a glamorous life. It takes hard work and much practice to be chosen from the many who "try out." Being an ambassador from the school, the cheerleader must set an example and represent her school well, all the while backing up the team's efforts.

What else is a cheerleader? She's neat and clean from head to toe, but she knows she's not fully dressed until she puts on — a smile. She's the team's spiritual energy. She's vitality with a capital "V." She's cheerful, friendly, and enthusiastic. She's the perfect model of respect and admiration. She's that extra bounce in school spirit. She's a leader all the way.

In 1947 the Bay View Student Government Association emerged from the Youth Victory Corps. The Victory Corps was formed during the war years to train youth for war service and to give them an active part in the community war effort through participation in the sale of war bonds, paper drives, and scrap metal drives. After the war, because the youth of the Victory Corps had shown that they could accept responsibility and co-operate as adults, our Student Government Association was formed.

Since 1947 our S.G.A. has grown and progressed. Through the years, as the students demonstrated that they could accept more responsibility, standing committees were formed: Student Court, 1949; Dance Committee, 1948; Auto Registration, 1952;

Bay View's S.G.A. is composed of the Student Board, Student Court, and Assembly. All Student Government activities and services, such as its standing committees, are approved, organized, and planned by one or more of these bodies.

The year 1963-1964, Bay View High School's golden anniversary, was another year which showed progress in our Student Government. Some of the more important accomplishments of S.G.A. during our golden anniversary year were the revision of the Student Government Constitution, revision of the Student Handbook, a sports dance, plans for a used book store, a stronger Student Court, and an attempt by Inter-High to get an extension on bus pass time limits.

The publication staff comprises one of the most vital and beneficial groups at Bay View. They sacrifice much of their daily time in producing a genuine Redcat newspaper and a well-rounded yearbook. The results of their efforts are noted by the faculty, alumni, and the student body itself.

The publication business staff solicits advertising, and conducts the sale of subscriptions to both the Oracle Annual and Newspaper. The entire responsibility of business management and production falls upon its members. The efficiency of the business staff is a result of conscientious effort and mutual co-operation.

Editors, reporters, copy writers, proofreaders, photographers, typists, and many others combine their varied talents to publish the Oracle, the school paper. Their object is to provide Viewites with informative articles, human interest stories, humor, and constructive editorials, combined in a selective and interesting newspaper.

Members of the annual staff contribute much in publishing a comprehensive yearbook. The staff strives to present and preserve the school experiences of the past year in practical, pictorial accounts appealing to all Viewites, past and present.

The production of the newspaper and yearbook often demands the surrender of daily study halls and additional time after school. Conferences with advisors and staff members, trips to the printer and engraver, and production "homework" absorb many hours of free time. Sacrifices of this kind are needed and expected of the members, who all do their part and sometimes a little more, in publishing the paper and yearbook.

The Quill and Scroll award is presented annually to deserving young journalists who have contributed valuable time to produce work of notable quality in some phase of school publications. The award, providing membership in an international journalistic society, recognizes individual achievement and encourages further accomplishment in journalism. This honor realizes its utmost possibilities when it can contribute to the formation of better journalism through the adaptation of a higher code of ethics, resulting in constructive action through forceful thinking.

Long before "world citizenship" was a term on everyone's tongue, students at Bay View were learning languages to help them understand people of other lands.

The forerunner of the Foreign Language Club was a Latin club known as "Aegis," named for the shield of Minerva, goddess of wisdom. The president and vice-president of the club were known as consuls; the secretary, the aedile; the treasurer, the quaestor; and the sergeants-at-arms, the lictors. Its activities were similar to those carried on today in the Latin branch of F.L.C. The most celebrated event was the "Saturnalia," which consisted of a dinner, songs, and a guest speaker.

As Aegis progressed, the club was divided into four sections, one for each language taught at Bay View, and became known as the Foreign Language Club. Along with its general meetings, the club meets in sections bi-monthly.

General meetings help to co-ordinate the club's many activities. Sectional meetings involve the study of individual countries' customs and the presentation of slides and movies depicting the art and literature of foreign countries. Along with these activities, the club sponsors an annual banquet which consists of a dinner, followed by a distinguished foreign speaker.

In June outstanding eighth semester language students are awarded pins. The outstanding language student of the year is awarded a $100 scholarship, provided he continues with a language in college.

F.L.C. plays a big part in bringing foreign exchange students to Bay View. This is done by selling "Shares in International Friendship" to the people of the community.

Foreign Language Club offers Bay View students an opportunity to understand and appreciate people of other lands while engaging in diverse social activities.

Makes Resources Available

The Bay View Library Guild, formed in 1951, is a service organization of the school promoting the maximum use of the library by students and teachers. From the beginning, the club was divided into various groups which are still functioning. They include personnel, art, publicity, entertainment, lost and found, and monitor duty.

The year 1952 marked the beginning of many new policies for the Library Guild. The system whereby students can reserve books was started. Library slips replaced special help slips, and groups of ten students were permitted to browse through the shelves during a class period.

In 1953 phonograph records were added to the library.

Also, during that year, the Guild members really had a project; they decorated a float for the Homecoming Parade.

By 1955 there were over seventy members in the Guild, the largest number in any high school guild in the city.

In 1963 the Guild members were hostesses to the new Gustav Fritsche Library staff. They also held a "get acquainted day" in October for Student Government officers and board members and library monitors. A fund-raising activity sponsored by the Guild this year was a cookie sale, which proved to be a huge success. However, the most important job of the Guild is, and always will be, to serve Bay View High School to the fullest extent.

The Active Athletes . . . EMBLEM CLUB

OFFICERS SEMESTER ONE

Standing: Kenneth Johnson, David Lawrence

Kneeling: Wayne Baumgart, Russel Odwazny, Jack Petri

Comprising one of the most active clubs in Bay View, the members of Emblem Club are constantly called upon to serve their school in several capacities. While serving as greeters during the parent-teacher conferences and on college night, they act as representatives of the youth of today, demonstrating the many favorable qualities which they possess.

To raise funds to support Emblem Club activities, the members sponsor movies and direct sale of tickets. Also, during the fall sport's season, they sell colorful Bay View beanies.

The high point in the year on the club's busy calendar was the annual Faculty-Emblem Club basketball game. In a hard-fought duel by both sides, the club emerged victorious by a score of 32-31.

Two of the primary goals of Emblem Club are the preservation of the major emblem as an achievement and distinction, and the promotion of interest, enthusiasm, and participation in athletics. Towards these objectives, members of Emblem Club are constantly striving.

Senior Girls' Honor Society is an organization designed to give recognition to outstanding senior girls. Senior Honor Girls, serving as hostesses, greet and guide visitors to the school on Conference Day, Open House Night, and other special occasions. They can always be recognized by their bright-red jackets and their cheerful smiles.

The society was formed by Miss Helen Steel in 1959, the first group having nine members. Each year girls are selected by the Faculty Honor Committee on the basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activities, character, and personality.

It is an honor to be a Senior Honor Girl. Each girl should strive for membership beginning with her very first day at school. The members, highly regarded, must be trustworthy and dependable, for they set the standards for the rest of the student body.

Senior Girls' Honor Society is becoming an important activity in school life. The girls, asked to help the school in many areas, are always willing to prove that they are worthy of the esteem associated with this society.

The purpose of History Club is to promote a better understanding of our world, so that its members will be better able to judge America's present and future position in international affairs. To gain this understanding, the members examine world events and then debate the different aspects of the various issues among themselves. Often, because of the time factor, these debates may be continued outside the regular club meetings. It is the hope of the members that such free discussion of national and international issues will serve to prepare them for their present economic and social environment.

Specific activities of History Club include the planning of the annual Memorial Day program and the sale of Wisconsin State Historical Society Calendars, their primary money-making project. The club is sponsoring the construction of a current events bulletin board near East Study Hall. The purpose of the proposed board is to promote an understanding of world events throughout the student body of Bay View. During the past year the club also prepared periodic displays, one depicting the position of America during the second World War and another portraying the functions and goals of the United Nations.

History Club, through varied and beneficial activities, hopes to mold better citizens for their role in the world community.

One of the most distinguished and productive organizations of the school is the twenty-six year old X Club, the honor society of Bay View. The club was formed March 14, 1938. Its charter members then drew up the society's constitution, which remains essentially unchanged today. The original motto, "Youth is the time to learn," still provides a guide for the members, who must earn at least one A on every report card and may have no mark below B. The function of X Club is to encourage higher scholarship in the student body and to circulate information concerning colleges. This year the chief purposes were carried out in varied activities, which included the awarding of an honor plaque to the highest homeroom in each grade group; the viewing of a film "Choosing a College"; a speech by Paul Folgueras, foreign exchange student; instructive talks by graduates; and a field trip. These and other activities were planned and executed by efficient committees, whose members strove diligently to keep X Club one of Bay View's most active, beneficial, and influential organizations.

ART CLUB ... Forming Creativity and Skill

As one of the oldest clubs at Bay View, Art Club has witnessed and reflected the growth and changes of the American society over the past half century. Yet, with all the changes, the purpose of Art Club has remained basically the same. That aim is to provide a meeting place for young people who wish to develop their artistic abilities.

The varied subjects included in the study of art makes each meeting of Art Club a new experience for the young artists. At each session the member might expose his newest work, produced in art class, to the critical appraisal of his peers and advisors. At another session the young enthusiast might discuss the newest trends in modern paintings or the techniques of shading, coloring, or perspective. No meeting is quite the same.

Through the years the talents learned by the members of Art Club have been used to enlighten and entertain the school and community. Many Scenery Crew members have come from Art Club, and many of the colorful posters and displays which have "adorned" Bay View halls were the product of club members.

Clearly, Art Club has been a boon in its many years of existence, not only to its members but also to the school in its long and colorful history.

Probing For Knowledge

Concerning itself with one of the most popular fields of interest in this age of discovery and rapid technological development, Science Club provides the student with a chance to come in contact with and investigate some of the more recent advances in the fascinating world of science. Due to the wide range of fields covered by the general term "science," the club is divided into several sections: Rod and Gun Club, Biology Club, Chemistry Club, Physics Club, Gardening Club, Photography Club, and Amateur Radio Club.

The various sections of Science Club hold meetings every two weeks under the guidance of a faculty advisor; however, members are permitted to use equipment several days a week after school without direct supervision.

In this way those students who are working on projects are given an opportunity to pursue their interests more deeply than they would normally be able to do during class periods.

Some of the projects worked on this year by members of the various sections were spectrographic analysis, chromatography, construction of a fuel cell, bacteriological studies, construction of a mass field spectrometer, and the collection and identification of various types of plant and animal life.

By permitting students, through the use of school equipment and faculty counseling, to satisfy their quest for information concerning the problems which they encounter, Science Club fulfills its stated goal — to help develop the minds of the future in the hope that they, in turn, will provide a better world in which to live.

HOME ECONOMICS Club

The Home Economic Club of Bay View was formed in the fall of 1962 as an educational and service group. Its activities help young women prepare for careers and home-making and develop a knowledge of social relationships, responsibilities, and friendship.

Some members of Home Economics Club find their way into Future Nurses Club. Here the members exchange information on nursing schools and their requirements, discuss the opportunities of the medical profession, and plan tours of local hospitals. Future Nurses also assist as monitors for the infirmary.

The preparation of costumes for class productions and musicals is the responsibility of the costume crew, another branch of Home Economics Club. The members also serve as dressers for the various casts and are in the midst of the excitement of many school productions. The group has also sent stuffed toys and gowns to youngsters at Milwaukee Children's Hospital.

Serving at school functions and lunches is a service which the Food Festivities' members offer to the school. Here the girls are able to develop their culinary talents and learn interesting ideas in the preparation of food. This section also stages a baking contest where distinguished people, such as Mr. Showers, serve as judges.

Through the above activities Home Economics Club hopes to foster enthusiasm for developing talents useful in family living.

Parties, Service, Talent . . .

Girls' Club has been in existence longer than any other organization at Bay View. Way back in barracks days the first three clubs to organize were Boys' Club, Round Table, and Girls' Club. Round Table was a literary group that developed many varied interests, each of which formed its own club like Book-in-hand, Foreign Correspondence, Chess, and Debate. Boys' Club also disbanded as a large group, but the school retained most of its service crews and committees. Girls' Club has had a continuous existence, trying to meet the needs and desires of each class of girls. But through the years traditions have had to change. For example, in the first years a highlight of the year's activities was a tea for the mothers of the girls — long discontinued because membership became too large. In those days there was no student government, so Girls' Club sponsored a dance each semester. Now we have the canned food drive, a fund to help girls with personal needs, a party welcoming new girls to Bay View, and a party saying farewell to those graduating. This year, as in so many previous years, there have been the style show, with girls modeling their own costumes; the talent show, open to every member; and the class competition, won this year by the junior class. In addition to these activities, "Girls' Club through the Years" was a major highlight.

Class Notes

We, the graduating seniors of January 1964, are proud and excited to graduate from the Bay View High School during its Golden Anniversary Year and to be given the opportunity to meet and hear, as speakers, many well-known graduates. They have returned to tell us of their experiences while at school and after graduation. We wonder whether the events that have occurred during our four years here will also be of interest forty or fifty years from today. In many ways, important events have happened.

Athletically, during our freshman year, we had the State Championship Cross Country Team; during our junior year, we had a champion baseball team. However, whether our teams were at the very top or not, they always furnished many thrilling and exciting games and events.

Musically, we enjoyed real highlights. During our junior year our band was selected to represent Wisconsin in Music Man competition in Mason City, Iowa, and there placed among the first bands of the country. Then it was Bay View that was given the privilege to be the first high school in the United States to present the operetta, The Music Man.

Academically, we found each year's courses more interesting and challenging. As we came to know our fellow classmates better, each semester we enjoyed working together more and more, both in the classroom and in the extra-curricular activities, where we assumed more and more responsibility.

Whether others remember or not, we shall never forget our many school dances, especially the Senior Prom, Tonight, or that Spring Tour to Washington.

Also, we were the last class to enter Bay View during the principalship of Dr. Korn, who then retired after years of devoted service to our school. In our second semester it was Mr. Showers who assumed the many responsibilities as our principal.

As we entered Bay View for our last semester in September, we no longer saw any bewildered "freshies." Gustav Fritsche Junior High School was opened, and Bay View became a true senior high school, certainly a major change in its history.

Now as we go forth and accept the challenge of our society, we are glad to have been a part of Bay View; certainly it has become a part of us.

Class Notes

We, the fiftieth June graduating class of Bay View High School, look back on the last four years of our lives with fond memories of wonderful days gone by. Golden is this our anniversary year, and golden are the memories we have of our experience at Bay View.

Bay View has undergone many changes since classes were held in the barracks in 1914. Our class has witnessed some of these changes. Arriving as freshmen, we were greeted by another newcomer, Mr. Arthur Showers, who replaced Dr. Korn as principal. We saw the cafeteria being remodeled; new chairs replaced the old wooden ones, and a new kitchen was furnished with modern facilities. Returning from summer vacation as sophomores, we found fluorescent lighting in every classroom and study hall.

Changes also took place in school procedure. We saw the flag of our nation proudly displayed in every homeroom, and we respectfully participated in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and in singing the "Star Spangled Banner" on Monday mornings. During our last semester we had to adjust to a longer school day, extending from 8:15 A. M. to 3:28 P. M. with fifty-nine minute classes.

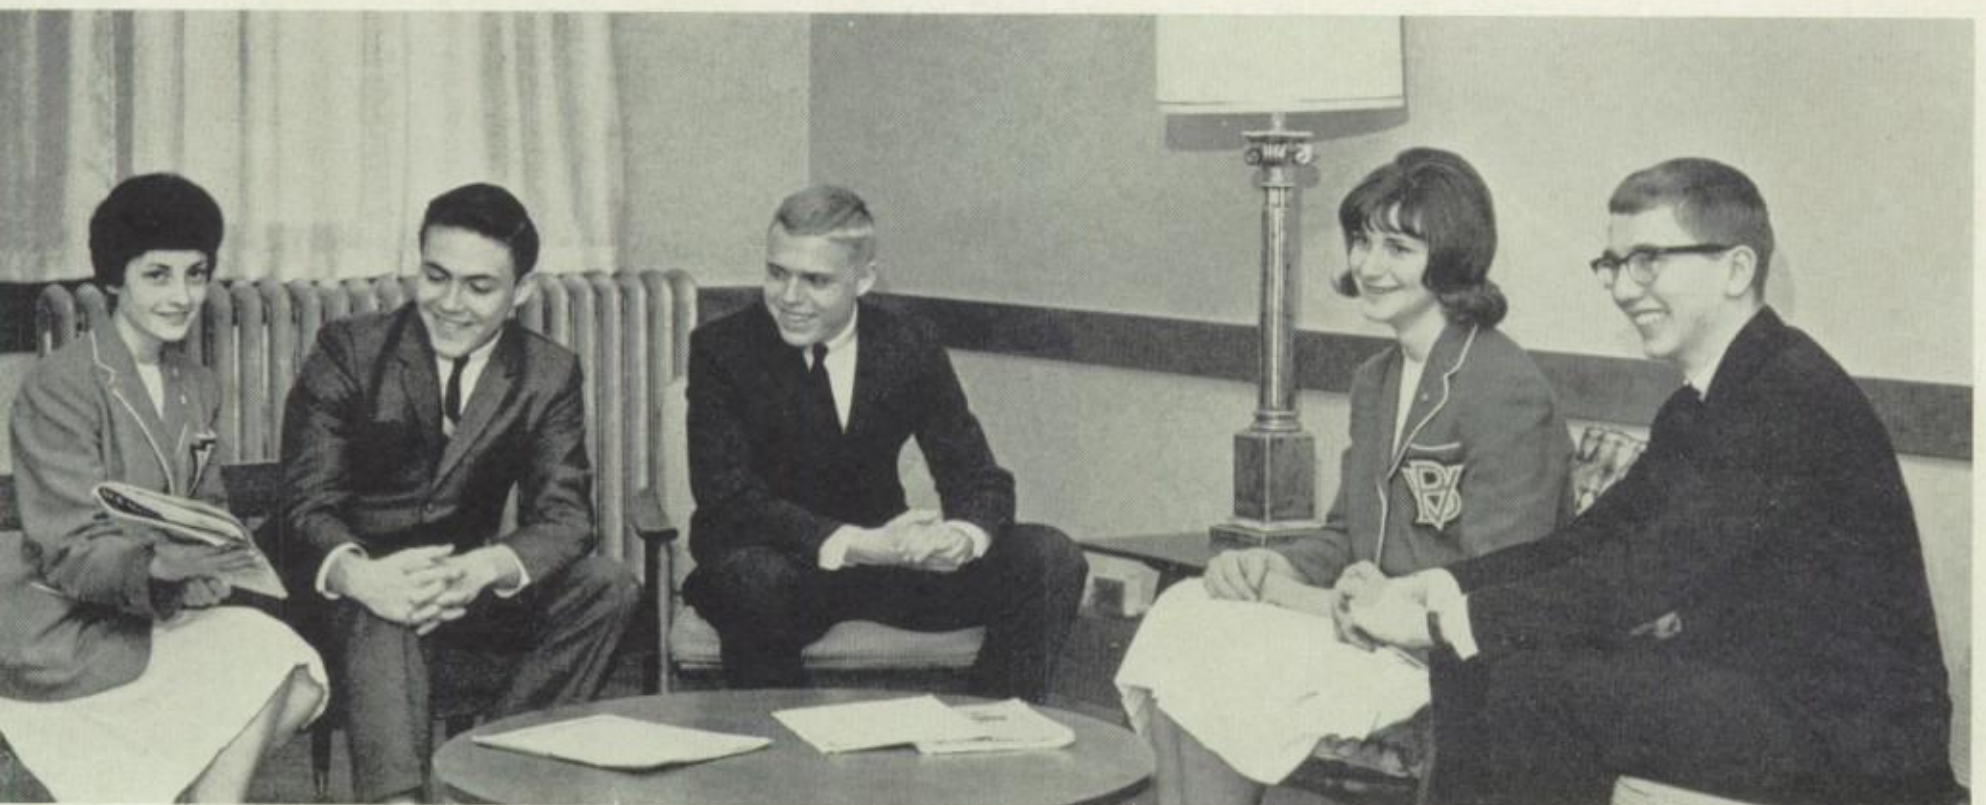

Not only were there internal changes, but the world outside Bay View's walls was changing, too. We watched the construction of Gustav A. Fritsche Junior High School from its start to its completion. Turning into a senior high school, Bay View became a "big sister" to the new junior high which took the "freshies" from Bay View halls.

Bay View has always been noted for the extensive activity program it offers its students. We will remember the many sports, clubs, and other activities which occupied so much of our time, but which proved to be so beneficial in cultivating new friendships and developing professional interests. As we moved through the years, we became officers or representatives of these clubs and activities, providing us with valuable experience in leadership and responsibility.

Remembering the colorful and important events and happenings which make up every Bay View year, we think back to the 1963 homecoming football game, which we won with only forty-five seconds left in the game; the Christmas programs, which inflamed us with the spirit of the holiday season; the Memorial Day programs, with the flag flying at half-mast while the sound of taps echoed over our campus; the class plays, Girl Shy, The Girls in 509, and others; the fine musicals of our last two years, The Music Man and My Fair Lady; the victory of our 1964 basketball team in winning the first regional tournament in the history of Bay View; the campaign which brought our first and second Foreign Exchange Students to Bay View through the sale of friendship shares; the celebration of Student Government Day, with Mr. Showers shaking the hands of the newly-elected officers; the many dances and record hops, such as "Telstar" and "Redcat Rally"; and the innumerable other events which have filled our years at Bay View High.

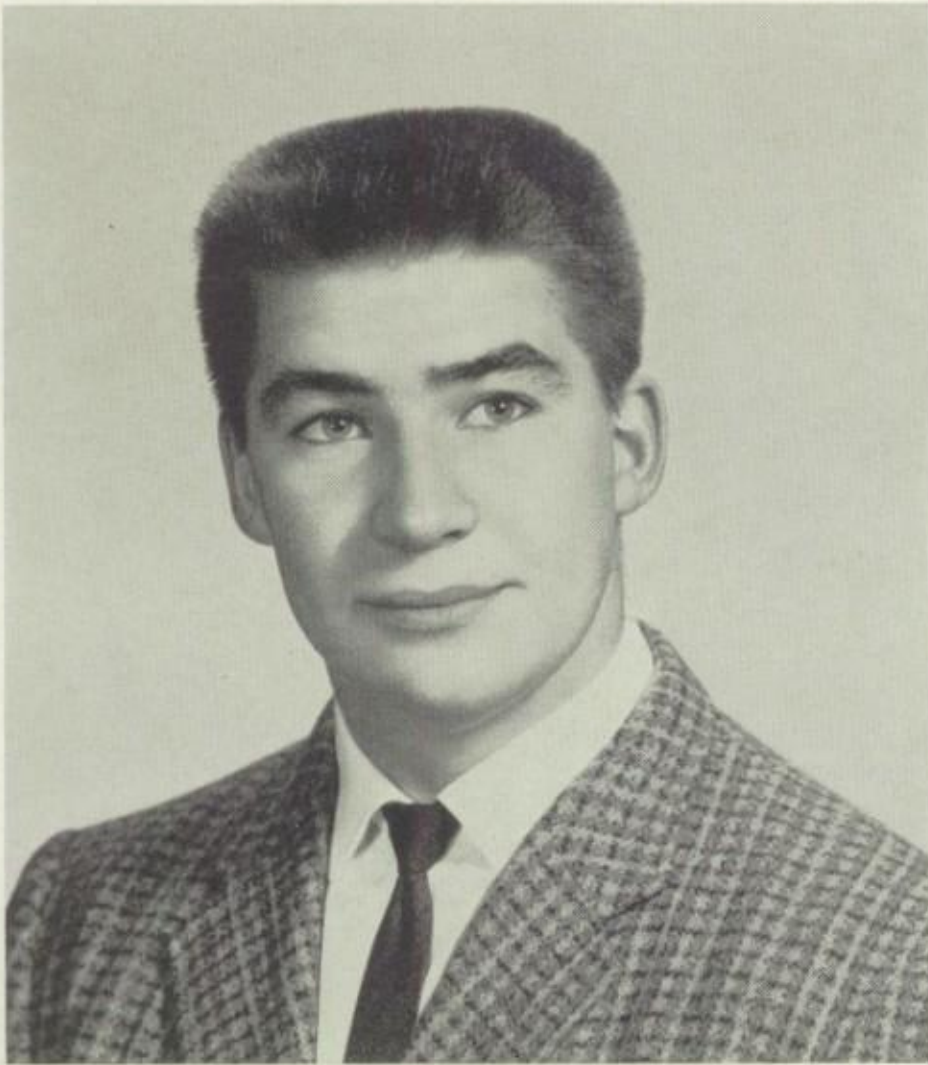

Then there are thoughts which only a candidate for graduation can have. We reminisce of Heel and Tie Day, of Cap and Gown Day, of our last prom, of the last walks through Bay View halls, and of all the things we will no longer be seeing or doing.

With Commencement Day our days at Bay View will end, closing one of the most important chapters in our lives. Receiving our diplomas in gold graduation gowns commemorating Bay View's fiftieth anniversary, we will feel a little more mature and somewhat richer for our stay. What Bay View has given us can never be taken away, but it can and will always be shared.

PAUL GNAS

Who can comprehend the mind of the Almighty as He strikes down youth before life has bloomed? We need not understand, only trust that the Will of God is perfect — that all things fit into a divine plan according to His Counsel.

We grieve the loss of Paul, but we know his untimely death was not beyond the Master's Hand. Although God's purpose may not be comprehended, let us cherish those qualities of Paul which were permitted to live, if only briefly.

In Memoriam

Eternity and youth are as dissimilar as the dawn and the sunset, and when one overtakes the other, only God knows why.

Donna's glowing smile and ever cheerful face will linger always in our hearts, for she taught us all a lesson, a lesson in hope, courage, and never-ending faith. The bonds of mortality were loosened as she passed from death into a new life. Certainly, her brief stay on earth was rich in love and understanding; despite her youth, she had truly experienced life.

HE'S GETTING AN

$18,000 GRADUATION GIFT

It's the biggest day in his life so far. Today, the school is giving him that long-sought diploma; Mom and Dad bought him a 17-jewel watch. American industry has a "gift" ready for him, too . . . a brand-new job that cost $18,000 to create.

Sounds remarkable, doesn't it? Yet, $18,000 is the average bill for providing just one new job in industry today. It's the cost of a long list of "capital goods" — like buildings, tools, and equipment. And industry has to provide these things before even one new person can be hired.

Where does the money come from to pay for all these new jobs? Well, a lot of it comes right from the business itself — for example, from profit reinvested in the company. Other dollars come from shareholders who invest their money with the hope of making a profit — and part of the money is borrowed, to be paid back later out of profit.

So, profit is the key to business growth. It's the incentive that motivates people to risk their savings, develop a superior product, provide a better service. And it helps create the jobs that will be waiting on graduation day.

CATERPILLAR

Here's your $18,000 graduation
gift. You deserve every bit of it as a result of hard work and sacrifice.
